

Photo credit: Burning of the Land #23, 2018 by Veronica Mungaloon Hudson. Veronica Mungaloon Hudson participated in our 2018 'RAW': Indigenous art and music exhibition in Melbourne.

Exhibition for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists

'RAW': Indigenous art and music exhibition – October 2019 – Brisbane

Norton Rose Fulbright is a global law firm. We provide the world's preeminent corporations and financial institutions with a full business law service. We have more than 4,000 lawyers and other legal staff based in Europe, the United States, Canada, Latin America, Asia, Australia, the Middle East and Africa.

As part of our commitment under our Reconciliation Action Plan we are proud to be hosting our next annual 'RAW' Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art and music exhibition in Brisbane in October 2019.

All of the artwork will be for sale with 100 per cent of the proceeds going to the artists.

We are looking to showcase around five artists and one musician or music group. If you are interested in exhibiting your work (all mediums will be considered e.g. canvas, photography, sculptures, textiles etc), please email Leanne Collingburn, National Pro Bono Executive, RAPWG Co-Chair leanne.collingburn@nortonrosefulbright.com with information about the type of art works you produce, your contact details and any questions you might have about the exhibition.

View the video from last year's event in Melbourne here.

Applications close July 15, 2019.